From Thursday October 5. to Monday October 9. 1704.

Windsor, October 8. The following Addreſs was preſented to Her Majeſty by his Grace the Duke of Ormond, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, and Chancellor of the Univerſity of Dublin.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Provoſt, Fellows and Scholars, of the College of the Holy and Undivided Trinity, of Queen Elizabeth, near Dublin in Ireland.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

IN the deepeſt Senſe of Duty and Gratitude, we humbly Congratulate the many and glorious Succeſſes of Your Majeſty's Reign, owing to the Wiſdom of Your Councils, the Conduct and Bravery of Your Commanders, and the Signal Bleſſing of Almighty God upon them both: By which Means You are in this ſhort ſpace already become the Glory of the preſent Age, and a great Example to all that ſhall ever ſit upon the Throne of theſe Kingdoms.

'Tis now become evident to all, that nothing is too great to be expected from a long Continuance of Your Rule over us; which we crave Your Majeſty will believe we pray for as for our own Lives and Safety; for Liberty and Happineſs; for the Settlement of true Religion among us; and as for our common Parent, from whoſe Tendereſt Affection and Bounty alone, we of this Nation ever hope to be in a Condition of feeling the Bleſſings of a Peace, and of having any ſmall Share in the Proſperity of England.

May the ſame Spirit of Wiſdom go on to inſpire Your Royal Breaſt with the beſt Reſolutions; and may the ſame viſible Hand of God be in the Execution of them: That as You have apparently made the Advantage of his true Religion, and the Happineſs of Your People, Your only Aim, it may all come home to Your Self at laſt; till both You and Your Subjects ſhall have nothing more to wiſh for, except one from thoſe Loyns to be the happy Heir of all Your Virtues and the mighty Rewards that attend them.

Given under our Common Seal the 26th of September, in the Third Year of Her Majeſty's Reign.

The following Addreſs from the City of Lincoln was preſented to Her Majeſty by Sir John Meres, to whom the ſame was ſent in the Abſence of the Members of Parliament for that City.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens and Commonalty, of the City of Lincoln.

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

WE Your Majeſty's Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, beg Leave moſt humbly to preſent to Your Majeſty our unfeigned grateful Acknowledgments of Your Majeſty's great Wiſdom in the Management of all Your Affairs; but more eſpecially in the great Care Your Majeſty has taken in the applying of the Money raiſed by Parliament for carrying on the War; by which Means Your Majeſty's Forces, and thoſe of Your Allies, have, under the valourous and prudent Conduct of the Duke of Marlborough, gained a moſt glorious and compleat Victory over the French and Bavarians near the Banks of the Danube: And Your Majeſty's Fleet under the Command of Sir George Rooke hath, at a great diſtance from Your Dominions, taken a ſtrong and advantagious Port from the Spaniards, and forced back the French Fleet and Spaniſh Gallies, without the Loſs of any of Your Majeſty's Ships: Which bleſſed Effects of Your Majeſty's wiſe and gracious Government gives us good Grounds to hope, as we ſhall always pray, That Your Majeſty's Arms may continue Succeſsful, to the obtaining a laſting and well founded Peace; and that Your Majeſty's happy Reign over us may be long and proſperous.

Given under our Common Seal the Second Day of October, in the Third Year of Your Majeſty's Reign.

The following Addreſs from the City of Hereford was preſented to Her Majeſty by the Honourable James Bridges Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Dread Sovereign,

WE the Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of the City of Hereford, in Common Council aſſembled, do heartily give Thanks to Almighty God for the great and glorious Victory lately obtained by the Arms of Your Majeſty and of Your Allies, near the Banks of the Danube, where Your Majeſty's Power was almoſt unthought of. We alſo give unto God our like Thanks for his giving Your Majeſty Courage to proſecute a neceſſary War againſt a late formidable Enemy, and for giving You Wiſdom to make Choice of able Counſellors, and of a valiant Commander. Theſe ſignal Bleſſings from God upon Your Majeſty we attribute to Your own great Piety and Reſolution to advance the True Worſhip of God, and to ſuppreſs all Vice and Immorality, the bold Sins of former Times: And we doubt not, but that by the ſteddy Courſe of Your Chriſtian Life herein, You will procure more Showers of Bleſſings upon Your Self, and upon Your happy People, if they follow Your Majeſty's Example. Then we may expect a Succeſſion of more Victories at Land and at Sea: Then we may expect to ſee the Pride of France reduced by Your Majeſty's Arms, and Your Fleets ſtill Triumphant over all Armadoes provided to inſult Your Majeſty's Dominions, and to interrupt ſuch our State of Peace as ſcarce any other Europeans enjoy but our ſelves under the Auſpicious Government of Your Majeſty, the Defender of our Primitive Faith, and of all we have which is dear to us. O happy England! where there is ſuch a Peace; where the Church Eſtabliſhed by Law Religiouſly Profeſſeth, and Learnedly Defends the True and Apoſtolick Doctrine; where there is neither Tyrant nor Slave; where the Sovereign upholds the Liberty of the Subject, and the People with their Hands, Hearts, and Purſes, endeavour to maintain the Sovereignty as their own Security: Theſe things give us good Reaſon ſincerely to pray, that Your Majeſty may be never wanting on the Throne to us, Your Majeſty's moſt willingly Dutiful and Obedient Subjects.

In Teſtimony whereof we have hereto, with an unanimous Vote, put our Common Seal of this City of Hereford this 23d day of September, in the Third Year of Your Majeſty's moſt Gracious Reign over us.

The followirg Addreſſes have likewiſe been preſented to Her Majeſty.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Biſhop, Dean and Chapter, and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Wincheſter.

WE Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful Subjects, the Biſhop and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Wincheſter, beg Leave, to offer Your Majeſty our moſt ſincere and humble Thanks, not only for the many Bleſſings we enjoy under Your Government, in common with the reſt of Your People, but alſo for that peculiar Goodneſs in freely granting part of Your Revenue for the Maintenance of our Poor Brethren. This ſeaſonable Charity to Your Clergy has confirm'd to us the Belief we juſtly entertain'd upon Your firſt Acceſſion to the Throne, That the Eſtabliſh'd Church, to which Your Majeſty had expreſs'd ſo early and ſo particular a Regard, wou'd be diſtinguiſh'd in Your Royal Favour. We ſhall therefore make it our chiefeſt Concern to purſue thoſe great Ends which we are aſſur'd Your Majeſty intended by this Bounty towards us, the Honour of God, and the Welfare of Your People; conſtantly offering up our Prayers that God wou'd continue Your Majeſty's Life a laſting Bleſſing to theſe Nations, and joyfully returning our Praiſes to him, for ſo ſignal an inſtance of Your Piety, and for all our other Happineſs under Your moſt proſperous Reign.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Britiſh Subjects Reſiding in Dantzig.

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

THE happy Influences of Your Majeſty's moſt Auſpicious Reign, are in their Extent equal to Your Royal Care, and ſhed a general Bleſſing upon all Chriſtendom: This City, and we Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects reſiding in it, feel the Benefit of Your Gracious Protection, and therefore think our ſelves bound in Duty and Gratitude, to beg Leave, that we may joyn our moſt affectionate Congratulations, with thoſe of our Brethren at home, for the glorious Succeſſes it pleaſes Almighty God to grant Your Majeſty's Arms, under the wiſe and valiant Conduct of his Grace the Duke of Marlborough, Sir George Rooke, and Your Majeſty's other Commanders by Sea and Land.

It fills our Hearts with Joy, and moſt thankful Acknowledgments of the Divine Goodneſs, that Great Britain, tho' divided from the reſt of of the World, is now ſo eminently the Protector of the Common Rights and Liberties of Mankind: Even Your Majeſty's Enemies will in time, we hope, partake in theſe ineſtimable Advantages, and be deliver'd from the Cruelties of that Arbitrary Government they long have labour'd under, and all Europe moſt juſtly dreaded, till God rais'd up Your Majeſty to diſſipate thoſe Fears.

May it pleaſe the ſame Great God, to grant Your Majeſty a long and proſperous Reign, and continue his Bleſſings upon all Your Undertakings. Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects.

The following Addreſs from the Borough of Maidſtone was preſented to Her Majeſty by Sir Thomas Colepeper Bar. High Sheriff of the County of Kent.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Jurats, Common Council, and Freemen of Your Majeſty's Town of Maidſtone in the County of Kent.

WE Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects in all humble manner beg Leave to Congratulate the late Glorious Succeſs of Your Majeſty's Arms both by Land and Sea, under the Courage and Conduct of his Grace the Duke of Marlborough and Sir George Rooke, in turning to Confuſion and Flight the mighty Armies and Navies of Your Enemies, and leaving their General Captive.

Such great Actions in Parts ſo remote, under ſuch Brave Commanders, and in ſo juſt a Cauſe, will render Your Memory and Reign Glorious, and the Gallantry of Your Engliſh Forces Formidable to all Nations; And we heartily pray, that Your Victorious Armies and Fleets may continually proceed with the like Succeſs, until You have Abrought Low the unſatiable Ambition of the great Oppreſſor, who hath long ſought the Deſtruction of this Church and Nation, and to make Slaves of a People, who never can be ſuch, whilſt they remain Your Majeſty's Subjects.

May the ſame Providence which hath Eſtabliſhed Your Majeſty upon the Throne be from henceforth and for ever the Defence and Shield of his Anointed, to Protect Your Perſon, and Prolong Your Days, for the Safety and Proſperity of all Your own Dominions, and the Support of the Proteſtant Intereſt in the reſt of Chriſtendom.

Sealed with our Common Seal the Sixteenth Day of September, in Third Year of Your Majeſty's Reign.

The following Addreſs from the Borough of Heddon was preſented to Her Majeſty by Henry Guy and Anthony Duncomb Eſqs; their Repreſentatives in Parliament.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Bayliffs and Burgeſſes, of Your Majeſty's ancient Corporation of Heddon in the County of York.

Moſt Gracious and moſt Glorious Sovereign,

AMong the reſt of Your ever Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, we beg Leave humbly to repreſent to Your Majeſty, That great was the Joy wherewith we firſt received the News of that never to be forgotten Victory lately obtain'd in Germany over the French and Bavarian Armies, by Your Majeſty's Forces and thoſe of Your Allies, under the Command of his Grace the Duke of Marlborough. When we reflect upon the Juſtice of that Cauſe wherein Your Majeſty is ſo Glorioufly engaged, not only for the neceſſary Defence of Your own Dominions, but Safety of Europe; When we conſider that ſteady Application and Wiſdom in Council; that unſhaken Zeal to the Eaſtabliſhed Church; that prudent Management of the publick Revenues; and that tender Regard to the common Good of Your People, all which have ſo Eminently appeared throughout Your Majeſty's Reign; we may reaſonably look upon that Succeſs, and ſuch others as have attended Your Majeſty's Arms both at Sea and Land, as the natural Effects or juſt Rewards of ſo good and wiſe an Adminiſtration: Yet can we not but be ſenſible, how far the Glory of that Action at Bleinheim, (great as it was) is owing to the true Courage of thoſe Troops, ſupported by the Bravery and Conduct of that able General under whom they fought.

While we thus preſume to Congratulate Your Majeſty upon the Succeſs of that Glorious Day, we cannot but at the ſame time beg Leave to own our farther Joy for the ſafe Deliverance of that Your Majeſty's Captain General from thoſe many and great Dangers to which his Perſon was ſo generouſly expos'd in the Heat of Battel; whereby he ſeems to have been preſerved, as the moſt proper Inſtrument under Your Majeſty, to perſue and finiſh that great Work, which Divine Providence ſeems to have deſigned to be the immortal Glory of Your Majeſty's Reign.

That it may ſo prove, and that a Work already ſo far advanced may have as ſucceſsful and glorious an end, we beg Leave to aſſure Your Majeſty of our utmoſt Endeavours; and that with Hearts full of Duty and Zeal, we ſhall continue to pray for Your Majeſty's long Life and happy Reign over us.

All which Addreſſes Her Majeſty received very graciouſly.

Vienna, Octob. 1. N. S. Two Deputies who came lately from Prince Ragotzki, were ſent back the 27th paſt; and yeſterday Baron Szirmay's Secretary returned hither with an Account, That the Prolongation of the Truce to the 15th inſtant had been accepted by the Malecontents: He alſo brought Paſſes for the Imperial Commiſſaries, and for Monſieur Bruyninx Envoy from the States General, to repair to Schemnitz the Place of Treaty. The Marquis de Prie goes from hence to morrow to the Duke of Marlborough's Camp, to conſult with his Grace, and the other Generals, about the ſending of Succours to the Duke of Savoy. The Turkiſh Envoy left this Place the 27th paſt, in order to return home, being very well ſatisfied with his Reception, and the Preſents which have been made him by the Emperor. Letters from Conſtantinople of the 18th of Auguſt, aſſure us, That the Ottoman Porte continues in the Reſolution to obſerve exactly the Treaty of Carlowitz, and particularly to maintain a good Correſpondence with the Emperor.

From the Duke of Marlborough's Camp at Weiſſimbourg, Octob. 7. The 3d inſtant in the Afternoon a great Sally was made out of Landau by 700 Men; but Prince Lewis being then in the Trenches, gave ſo good Orders, and diſpoſed all things ſo well, that the Enemy was immediately repulſed with the loſs of about 20 Men, without doing us any Damage at all. The 4th, the Pruſſian Forces began a Redoubt for the Security of their Attack on the Left; and the King of the Romans being in the Trenches, gave Order for the Battery of Mortars to fire that Night. Yeſterday a Lieutenant and 18 Men came over to us from the Town, who give an Account, That the Gariſon ſuffers very much by their continual Fatigues, and that we have already diſmounted ſeveral of their Cannon. Laſt Night, the Redoubts and the Parallels between them were finiſhed, and our Men have begun the Sap in ſearch of the Enemy's Mines, in order to make a Lodgment on the Counterſcarp. The Pruſſian Battery of 30 Pieces of Cannon will be ready to fire to morrow, though the Weather be now bad. His Grace the Duke of Marlborough intends to morrow to wait upon the King of the Romans in the Camp before Landau.

Berlin, Octob. 7. Part of the Troops deſigned from hence for Pruſſia began their march yeſterday, and the reſt will follow in few days. Monſieur Prebendow, Great Treaſurer of Poland, is ſhortly expected here with the Character of Ambaſſador Extraordinary from King Auguſtus, and that part of the Republick which is in his Intereſt, in whoſe behalf he is to acknowledge the King of Pruſſia in that Quality. Our Letters from Poland contain very little News, King Auguſtus being ſtill in the ſame Poſt, near the joyning of the Rivers Bugg and Weiſſel, it being uncertain which way the King of Sweden deſigns to march next; but it was ſaid, That General Reinſchild, with a Detachment of the Swediſh Forces was advanced into the Territory of Lublin.

Hague, Octob. 14. N. S. The Forces deſigned for the Moſelle are in a readineſs to march, and will be reinforced by four Battalions and ſix Regiments of Horſe, from the Army Commanded by Monſieur d'Auverquerque. Our Fleet of Men of War and Merchant Ships from the Streights is arrived, and the Admirals Callemberg and Waſſenaer, are expected here this Evening. The Convoy for Portugal, with a Reinforcement for our Troops there, ſet Sail yeſterday from the Texel. They write from Switzerland, That the Caſtles of Ivrea are ſurrendred to the Duke of Vendoſme, and the Gariſon made Priſoners of War. Theſe Letters add, That there were yet three conſiderable Bodies of Camiſars in the Sevennes, who were ſo exaſperated by the Defection of ſome of their Brethren, that they had reſolved to put to Death any Perſon that ſhould come to make Propoſals to them of that Nature, as they had already done one that came with great Offers from the Marſhal de Villars to one of their Chiefs.

Dublin, Sept. 25. This day a Proclamation was publiſhed by Order of the Lords Juſtices, declaring Her Majeſty's Pleaſure, That the Parliament in this Kingdom, now Prorogued unto the 3d day of October next, ſhould be further continued by Prorogation from that day unto Saturday the 10th day of February next.
